1 COME NOW, Plaintiffs, VANESSA BROOKMAN, individually, as successor and 2 interest to Anthony Brookman, and as personal representative for the estate of Anthony 3 Brookman, and DIANA SOQUI, for causes of action against Defendants and each of them, 4 and complain and allege as follows:

5 1. Plaintiff, VANESSA BROOKMAN (“V. BROOKMAN”) is the surviving 6 spouse of Decedent, ANTHONY BROOKMAN (“Decedent”), and is a resident of the County 7 of Los Angeles, State of California. V. BROOKMAN brings this action individually and as 8 the successor in interest to Decedent, and as the personal representative of the estate of 9 Decedent.

10 2. At the time of his death on October 27, 2008, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN’s, 11 Decedent was intestate and left surviving him as his sole heir at law, his wife, Plaintiff, V.
 12 BROOKMAN. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, and Decedent were married on July 10, 2004.

13 3. Plaintiff, DIANA SOQUI (“SOQUI”) is the surviving mother of Decedent and 14 is a resident of the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

15 4. Defendant, CITY OF LOS ANGELES (“CITY”), is a municipal corporation 16 organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, and is a “business 17 establishment” within the meaning of California Civil Code section 51 et seq.

18 5. Defendant, CITY OF LOS ANGELES POLICE DEPARTMENT (“LAPD”), is 19 a public entity duly organized and existing under the laws of the state of California and is a 20 “business establishment” within the meaning of California Civil Code §51, et seq.

21 6. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant, 22 OFFICER JOSE GUITIERREZ (“GUITIERREZ”), is an individual, and at all times relevant 23 to this action, was an employee of CITY and/or LAPD. Plaintiffs are further informed and 24 believe and thereon allege that at all times relevant to this action, GUITIERREZ was acting in 25 the course and scope of his employment with Defendants, CITY and/or LAPD.

26 7. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant, 27 OFFICER ALAN GHASSERANI (“GHASSERANI”), is an individual, and at all times 28 relevant to this action, was an employee of CITY and/or LAPD. Plaintiffs are further

1 informed and believe and thereon allege that at all times relevant to this action, 2 GHASSERANI was acting in the course and scope of his employment with Defendants, 3 CITY and/or LAPD.

4 8. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant, 5 SARGENT KYLE CAMPBELL ("CAMPBELL"), is an individual, and at all times relevant 6 to this action, was an employee of CITY and/or LAPD. Plaintiffs are further informed and 7 believe and thereon allege that at all times relevant to this action, CAMPBELL was acting in 8 the course and scope of his employment with Defendants, CITY and/or LAPD.

9 9. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant, 10 OFFICER JOSE SALDANA ("SALDANA"), is an individual, and at all times relevant to this 11 action, was an employee of CITY and/or LAPD. Plaintiffs are further informed and believe 12 and thereon allege that at all times relevant to this action, SALDANA was acting in the course 13 and scope of his employment with Defendants, CITY and/or LAPD.

14 10. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant, 15 OFFICER DANIEL SCHNEIDER ("SCHNEIDER"), is an individual, and at all times 16 relevant to this action, was an employee of CITY and/or LAPD. Plaintiffs are further 17 informed and believe and thereon allege that at all times relevant to this action, SCHNEIDER 18 was acting in the course and scope of his employment with Defendants, CITY and/or LAPD.

19 11. At all material times herein, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, 20 SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, were each duly appointed, qualified 21 and acting police officers employed as such by CITY and/or LAPD, and at all times herein 22 mentioned, were each acting in the course and scope of such employment and under color of 23 law. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based on such information and belief, herein 24 allege that all times herein mentioned, the Defendants, and each of them, engaged in a 25 common scheme, plan, venture for their common benefit, and their common purpose. Said 26 Defendants, and each of them, had knowledge of the facts stated herein and acted as herein 27 alleged, for the benefit and for their common purpose. The acts and omissions of each and all 28 of them are attributable to all of them, and they are jointly and severally liable therefor.

1 12. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were acting in 2 their capacity as police officers, police organizations at the site of the incident located at 3 Sepulveda Boulevard and Basset, in the City of Van Nuys, in an incorporated area of Los 4 Angeles, State of California on October 27, 2008.

5 13. At all times herein mentioned, DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, were officials, 6 supervisors and/or policy makers for and employed by CITY and/or LAPD and at all times 7 herein mentioned were each acting within the course and scope of their employment and 8 under color of law.

9 14. DOES 31 to 50, inclusive, whose true names and capacities are not known to 10 Plaintiffs, but who are each responsible for the injuries, omissions and deprivations suffered 11 by Plaintiffs as described herein and were each acting in the course and scope of their 12 employment by CITY and/or LAPD, and under color of law, are sued by such fictitious 13 named, but upon ascertaining the true name of a DOE defendants, Plaintiffs will amend this 14 complaint, or seek leave to do so, to allege such true name and capacity in lieu of such 15 fictitious name.

16 15. Each of the named and unknown individual Defendants sued herein is sued 17 both in his individual and personal capacity, as well as in his official capacity.

18 16. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that, at all times herein 19 mentioned, each of the Defendants was the agent and/or employee and/or co-conspirator of 20 each of the remaining Defendants, and in doing the things hereinafter alleged, was acting 21 within the scope of such agency, employment and/or conspiracy and with the permission and 22 consent of other co-Defendants.

23 17. All acts and omissions alleged herein were performed by and attributable to all 24 defendants, each acting as agent, employee or under the direction and control of the others.
25 All such acts and omissions were within the scope of such agency and/or employer and/or 26 under color of law, and each defendant instigated, participated in, approved and/or ratified the 27 acts and omissions of other defendants complained of herein.

28 ///

1 18. Plaintiffs are unaware of the true names and capacities of those Defendants 2 sued herein as DOE Defendants. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to allege said 3 Defendants' true names and capacities when that information becomes known to them.
4 Plaintiffs are informed, believe, and thereon allege that these DOE Defendants are legally 5 responsible and liable for the incident, injuries and damages hereinafter set forth, and that 6 each of said Defendants proximately caused the injuries and damages by reason of negligent, 7 careless, deliberately indifferent, intentional, willful or wanton misconduct, including the 8 negligent, careless, deliberately indifferent, intentional, willful or wanton misconduct in 9 creating and otherwise causing the incidents, conditions and circumstances hereinafter set 10 forth, or by reason of direct or imputed negligence or vicarious fault or breach of duty arising 11 out of the matters herein alleged. Plaintiffs will seek leave to amend this complaint to set forth 12 said true names and identities of the unknown named DOE Defendants when they are 13 ascertained.

14 19. At all times relevant herein, Defendants, and each of them, were acting within 15 the course and scope of their employment as officers, sergeants, captains, lieutenants, 16 commanders and chiefs of police, and/or civilian employees, policy makers and 17 representatives of CITY and/or LAPD, and the wrongful acts hereinafter described flow from 18 the very exercise of their authority. Defendants, and each of them, were also acting as an 19 employee, agent and representative of each and every other Defendant herein, and in doing 20 the acts herein alleged were acting with the permission, consent, ratification and authority of 21 their co-Defendants.

22 20. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that on or about October 23 27, 2008 at approximately 8:00 a.m., GUTIERREZ and GHASSERANI responded to a radio 24 call concerning a "disturbed male" on the corner of Sepulveda Boulevard and Basset Street, in 25 the City of Van Nuys, California. Decedent was discovered in the Valley Presbyterian 26 Hospital parking lot, disoriented and lying on his back. He stated he needed shelter from "the 27 earthquake." Decedent submitted to arrest without the need for force. The officers handcuffed 28 Decedent and requested a rescue ambulance. Without waiting for the ambulance to arrive and

1 despite their lack of information as to Decedent's medical condition, the officers assisted 2 Decedent to his feet and walked him to the police car.

3 21. A few moments later, CAMPBELL, SALDANA and SCHNEIDER arrived at 4 the scene. For unknown reasons, CAMPBELL determined the use of a "hobble restraint" was 5 to be used and placed same on Decedent. A "hobble restraint" is a total appendage restraint 6 procedure, similar to a hog-tie where one ties a person's wrists and ankles together and 7 restrains them. Decedent was seated in the patrol car and then stopped breathing. He was 8 pronounced dead at approximately 3:15 p.m.

9 22. The Los Angeles Police Department's use of hobbling restraints was not 10 justified in these circumstances and further, the use of such restraints can cause death to one 11 who is overweight as was Decedent. Decedent was 45 years old at the time of his death.

12 23. On November 7, 2008, the Los Angeles County Coroner performed an autopsy 13 on the body of Decedent. The Autopsy Report lists the primary cause of death as "Sequelae of 14 Hypoxic Ischemic Encephalopathy" (suffocation), and identifies, among other injuries, 15 abrasions and puncture wounds on the wrist and ankle regions.

16 24. On November 7, 2008, the death certificate stated that the cause of death was 17 "deferred." On March 30, 2009, the Death Certificate was corrected, and the immediate and 18 primary cause of death was listed as "Sequelae of Hypoxic Ischemic Encephalopathy."

19 25. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that both prior to and 20 during the time in which Decedent was assaulted and battered as described above, Decedent 21 was not armed with any kind of weapon, and posed no reasonable threat of violence to any 22 police officer, nor to any other individual. When Decedent was assaulted and battered by 23 officers of CITY and/or LAPD as described above, Decedent made no aggressive 24 movements, no furtive gestures, and no physical movements which would suggest to a 25 reasonable officer that he was armed with any kind of weapon, or had the will or the ability to 26 inflict substantial bodily harm against any individual.

27 ///

28 ///

1 26. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that the involved officers 2 of LAPD and/or CITY were negligently hired, trained and retained by CITY and/or LAPD in 3 that they had known propensities for acting in the fashion that they did with respect to this 4 incident, all of which was a proximate cause of injuries to Plaintiffs and the death of 5 Decedent.

6 27. GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER,
7 and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, killed Decedent, knowing full well that the established 8 practices, customs and policies of CITY, LAPD and/or DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, permit, 9 condone and ratify the excessive use of force; and would allow, condone and ratify a “cover-10 up” of illegal, excessive use of force, including GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 11 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive’s, illegal deadly force 12 and would allow the continued use of excessive force in violation of the laws of the State of 13 California and the laws of the United States. The complete failure of GUITIERREZ, 14 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, CITY, LAPD and DOES 1 to 50, 15 inclusive, to comport and comply with laws of the state of California and of the United States 16 and instead to follow the established practices, customs and policies of CITY, LAPD and 17 DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, which permit and condone the use of excessive force and would 18 allow, condone and ratify a “cover-up” of illegal, excessive use of force, caused 19 GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 20 10, inclusive, to believe that they could hobble Decedent with no legitimate reason, thereby 21 causing the death of Decedent. Such conduct by GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 22 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, was so extreme and 23 outrageous that they caused Plaintiffs to be deprived of the love, care, companionship, 24 familial relationship and support of their husband and son, respectively; i.e., Decedent, 25 causing irreversible injury to Plaintiffs.

26 28. In hobbling Decedent pursuant to the policies, customs and practices of CITY, 27 LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, as herein described, and in acting in the course and 28 scope of their employment with CITY and/or LAPD, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI,

1 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, violated Decedent's 2 constitutional rights, including but not limited to those provided under the Fourth and 3 Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, in that Decedent was not engaging 4 in any illegal conduct, did not pose a threat to anyone, and was completely unarmed on the 5 date of the incident and at the time of the incident. The degree of force used against Decedent 6 was unjustified, and the use of force was objectively unreasonable, unwarranted and 7 excessive.

8 29. The hobbling of Decedent was the result of the unconstitutional policies, 9 practices, and procedures in place at CITY and LAPD, and which are sanctioned, authorized 10 and ratified by GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, 11 CITY, LAPD and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive.

12 30. Said unlawful polices, practices, and procedures created an environment of 13 lawlessness which allowed and encouraged officers, including but not limited to 14 GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER and DOES 1 to 15 10, inclusive, in CITY and LAPD to employ customs and practices of excessive force and 16 violations of constitutional rights. Moreover, said misconduct was known, tolerated, 17 condoned and encouraged by supervisory officers of CITY and LAPD. GUITIERREZ, 18 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, 19 acted at all times herein, knowing full well that the established unlawful practices, customs, 20 procedures and policies of CITY and LAPD would allow a cover-up and allow the continued 21 use of illegal force in violation of the United States Constitution. The failure of CITY, LAPD 22 and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, to correct and prevent these constitutional violations was 23 negligent and reckless to the extreme and thereby subjected Decedent and other residents of 24 CITY to injuries, deaths and constitutional violations.

25 31. CITY, LAPD and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, were on notice prior to October 27, 26 2008, that proper police procedure and proper police tactics were not in place in CITY and 27 LAPD. This inadequate training and the failure to implement and follow proper police 28 procedures and proper police tactics is what has led to the needless, reckless and negligent

1 death of Decedent.

2 32. CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, have been negligent in the hiring 3 and screening of persons employed by CITY and LAPD, and in weeding out persons with 4 reckless, dangerous and/or violent propensities. CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, 5 have been negligent in establishing proper standards, screening, retention and employment 6 policies that would effectively eliminate from employment those persons with reckless, 7 dangerous and/or violent propensities.

8 33. On March 30, 2009 and April 3, 2009, claim forms were mistakenly submitted 9 to the County of Los Angeles, on behalf of Plaintiffs. On the Claim Forms, it was clear that it 10 was a claim against CITY and LAPD. True and correct copies of such Claim Forms are 11 attached hereto as "Exhibit 1."

12 34. The claim filed by V. BROOKMAN with the County of Los Angeles specifies 13 the basis for the claim. It states: "Anthony Brookman died in custody with the Los Angeles 14 Police Department. He appeared to have numerous bruises on his face and upper torso. It 15 appeared as though he was beaten to death." With respect to V. BROOKMAN's damages to 16 date, the claim form says "unknown." (See Exhibit "1.") V. BROOKMAN filed such claim on 17 behalf of herself, individually, as well as on behalf of Decedent. Given that an estate is not a 18 legal entity, she filed the claim as the successor in interest to Decedent and as personal 19 representative of his estate.¹

20 35. By letter dated April 3, 2009, the claims filed with the County of Los Angeles 21 were rejected. A true and correct copy of the notice of rejection is attached hereto as "Exhibit

26
27 28 ¹ As set forth in paragraphs 34-39, this case is clearly distinguishable from Nelson v. County of Los Angeles, et al. (2003) 113 Cal.App.4th 783.

1 36. On September 1, 2009, claim forms were filed with the CITY, along with an 2 application to present late claims pursuant to California Government Code section 911.4 et 3 seq. True and correct copies of the Claim Forms to the CITY and the Application to Present
4 Late Claim Regarding Damages are collectively attached hereto as "Exhibit 3."

5 37. The claim filed by V. BROOKMAN with the CITY specifies the following 6 when the claimant is to indicate how the injury occurred: "Anthony Brookman died in the 7 custody of the Los Angeles Police Department. He appeared to have numerous bruises on his 8 face and upper torso. It appeared as though he was beaten to death. Decedent died in the 9 custody of the Los Angeles Police Department. Initial filing of Claim on April 6, 2009. Copy 10 attached." V. BROOKMAN further indicated that the nature of the damages or injuries which 11 resulted were as follows: "Decedent Anthony Brookman died in custody of Los Angeles 12 Police Department" and that the amount of the claim is "unknown." (See Exhibit "3.") Again, 13 V. BROOKMAN filed such claim on behalf of herself, individually, as well as on behalf of 14 Decedent. Given that an estate is not a legal entity, she filed the claim as the successor in 15 interest to Decedent and as personal representative of his estate.

16 38. On September 11, 2009, the application to submit a late claim was denied. A 17 true and correct copy of the notice of denial is attached hereto as "Exhibit 4."

18 39. On September 29, 2009, a petition was filed with the Los Angeles Superior 19 Court, requesting that the Court excuse Plaintiffs from the late claim filing requirements. The 20 petition includes additional information that the damages suffered as a result of Defendants' 21 conduct includes that "Petitioner and decedent were injured in health, strength and activity, 22 suffering from nervous shock, mental anguish, emotional distress. . .," clearly asserting the 23 claim and petition on behalf of herself as well as on behalf of Decedent. A true and correct 24 copy of the petition is attached hereto as "Exhibit 5." On December 2, 2009, Plaintiffs' 25 petition was granted.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

For Negligence Wrongful Death

(By Plaintiffs Against All Defendants)

40. Plaintiffs repeat, re-allege and incorporate by this reference each of the preceding paragraphs of this complaint as if set forth in full herein.

41. On or about October 27, 2008, Defendants, CITY, LAPD, and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, and each of them, negligently and carelessly employed, trained, retained, supervised, assigned, controlled and negligently and carelessly failed to adequately or properly discipline GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, with the knowledge at all material times, or in the exercise of reasonable care, Defendants, and each of them, should have properly cared for Decedent while he was in their custody were unjustified in the actions and brutality toward Decedent and further and in addition to, should not have hobbled Decedent resulting in his death.

42. Defendants, and each of them, entered into a special relationship with Decedent when they undertook and placed him in custody knowing he was disoriented, confused, promising assistance, voluntarily assuming a protective duty for the safety of Decedent. As a result of the orders and/or conduct of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, as well as their promised assistance, Decedent relied to his detriment that GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, were safeguarding him. As a result of the negligent action of the police officers in not properly assessing Decedent's condition, they exposed him to an unreasonable risk of harm, resulting in his death while in the custody of Defendants, and each of them.

43. On October 27, 2008, when GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, under color of law as agents and employees of CITY and/or LAPD, and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, arrived at the parking lot of Valley Presbyterian Hospital, said Defendants, and each of them, had numerous duties:

- a. A duty to adequately and appropriately assess the situation, location and Decedent, including a duty to determine Decedent's state of mind, "suspicious" behavior, build, strength and ability to understand Defendants, and each of them;
- b. A duty to advise Decedent of the situation, as to why they were there and to question Decedent about why he was at the location, without use of force, fear and/or intimidation;
- c. A duty to serve and protect members of the public, including Decedent, from harm and to not place Decedent in a more dangerous position that he would have otherwise been had the Defendants, and each of them, not arrived at the scene;
- d. A duty to exercise reasonable care in the placement of Decedent under arrest;
- e. A duty to safeguard Decedent by not exposing Decedent to an unreasonable risk of harm or death;
- f. A duty to act carefully, prudently and safely in regard to Decedent and members of the public who may have been in the same and/or similar situation at the location of the incident, without use of force, fear, intimidation and/or retaliation;
- g. A duty to use only that amount of force which was reasonably necessary to detain, handcuff and/or arrest the Decedent, without causing the assault, battery and wrongful death of Decedent;
- h. A duty to prepare investigative reports which do not vindicate the use of negligent or excessive force, regardless of whether such use was justified;
- i. A duty to prepare investigative reports which do not solely rely on the work of officers involved in the incidents, of negligent or excessive use of force and which include credible testimony by non-law enforcement witnesses;

- j. A duty to prepare investigative reports which include non-law enforcement witness statements, even when those witness statement contradict CITY, LAPD and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive;
- k. A duty to prepare investigative reports which contain all factual information and items of physical evidence which contradict the accounts of CITY and LAPD officers, employees and/or agents;
- l. A duty to obtain all evidence when conducting an investigation, including obtaining witness statements, in order to obtain answers that may exonerate the accused;
- m. A duty to adequately assess and obtain civilian complaints and to research all such complaints to the fullest extent of the law, even when such complaints relate to complaints of excessive use of force and deputy misconduct by CITY, LAPD and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive;
- n. A duty to issue public statements exonerating accused individuals who are involved in altercations with police officers, including incidents of alleged negligent or excessive use of force, where the accused has been deemed to be “not guilty” and/or not at fault;
- o. A duty by CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, to objectively review investigative reports for accuracy and truthfulness, and to not accept conclusions which are unwarranted by the physical evidence of the incident, or the testimony of non-law enforcement witnesses, and which contradict the officer(s) version of events;
- p. A duty to enact and implement policies, practices and procedures as well as training in order to implement said policies, practices and procedures, relating to incidents of negligent or excessive use of force and other misconduct to avoid recurrence of such conduct;

- 1 q. A duty to establish an independent and autonomous investigative unit 2 within CITY and LAPD and to assign such a unit to investigate those 3 incidents where the initial witness statements contradict CITY and 4 LAPD personnel and/or where the officers involved in the incident 5 may have committed a crime or violated CITY and LAPD regulations;
- 6 r. A duty to maintain a centralized department-wide system for tracking 7 and monitoring of incidents of negligent or excessive force, abuse of 8 authority, falsification of reports, obstruction of justice and other 9 misconduct; so as to identify those officers who engage in such 10 misconduct;
- 11 s. A duty to establish a system for further review and further investigation 12 of all incidents, and investigative reports, where officers and their 13 supervisors allege that a civilian has allegedly resisted arrest or 14 attacked an officer and other witnesses provide contradictory or 15 exculpatory evidence against CITY and/or LAPD personnel;
- 16 t. A duty to establish a system for further review and further investigation 17 of all incidents and reports where witnesses have alleged that CITY 18 and/or LAPD officers have engaged in excessive force, abuse of 19 authority, falsification of investigative reports, fabrication of probable 20 cause, perjury, racial profiling or other misconduct;
- 21 u. A duty to objectively review and analyze all reports or complaints 22 where a civilian has alleged excessive use of force and police officers 23 have filed investigative reports alleging that the civilian has resisted 24 arrest or battered an officer;
- 25 v. A duty to investigate all stages of a civil or administrative proceeding, 26 in case of negligent or excessive use of force, falsification of evidence, 27 the filing of false investigative reports and other acts of misconduct; 28

- 1 w. A duty to not destroy physical evidence, including, audiotapes,
- 2 videotapes, documents, photographs or other exculpatory evidence; and
- 3 x. A duty not to file false charges of resisting arrest, battery on a peace
- 4 officer, or assault with a deadly weapon against a peace officer, against
- 5 those civilians who have been the victims of excessive force,
- 6 unjustified shootings or false arrest.
- 7 y. A duty to wait for rescue and/or trained medical personnel to assess
- 8 and treat Decedent prior to placing him in hobbling restraints, or to act
- 9 in reckless and wanton disregard for the rights and safety of Decedent;
- 10 z. A duty to adequately train, adequately assess and adequately supervise
- 11 GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,
- 12 SCHNEIDER and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, such that on the date of the
- 13 incident, and prior thereto, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI,
- 14 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10,
- 15 inclusive, would not use inadequate tactics and unlawful measures in a
- 16 wrongful attempt to detain and arrest Decedent; i.e., a duty to ensure
- 17 that GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,
- 18 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, were trained to adequately
- 19 assess the situation that ensued with Decedent, to determine probable
- 20 cause and when such can be used to effectuate an arrest, to detain and
- 21 arrest Decedent with the use of unlawful force and to ensure that
- 22 Decedent's rights, guaranteed to him by the Fourth and Fourteenth
- 23 Amendments, were preserved;
- 24 aa. To conduct adequate background checks prior to hiring any employees
- 25 and to hire only those employees who survived rigorous background
- 26 checks into such employee's fitness to become a police officer;

27 ///

28 ///

- 1 ab. To appropriately train each individual to become a highly specialized 2 officer in all areas of the law, including, but not limited to, personal 3 freedoms, constitutional protections, arrest, detention and use of deadly 4 force; and
- 5 ac. To adequately supervise their officers and employees to ensure that 6 such officers and employees are appropriately trained in all areas of the 7 law, including, but not limited to, personal freedoms, constitutional 8 protections, arrest, detention and use of deadly force and to ensure that 9 such officers and employees utilize all appropriate mechanisms while 10 in the field, while effectuating arrest, while conducting searches and 11 seizures and while employing deadly force.

12 44. Defendants, and each of them, breached these duties as follows:

- 13 a. By failing to adequately and appropriately assess the situation, location 14 and Decedent, including failing to determine Decedent's state of mind; 15 by failing to adequately determine and appropriately assess the 16 circumstances surrounding Decedent's presence at the subject location, 17 by failing to question Decedent and witnesses; and by failing to 18 adequately determine and appropriately assess Decedent's build and 19 strength and Decedent's ability to understand Defendants, and each of 20 them;
- 21 b. By failing to advise Decedent of the situation, as to why they were 22 there and to question Decedent about why he was at the location, 23 without use of force, fear and/or intimidation;
- 24 c. By failing to serve and protect members of the public, including 25 Decedent, from harm and to not place Decedent in a more dangerous 26 position that he would have otherwise been had the Defendants, and 27 each of them, not arrived at the scene. Specifically, Defendants, and 28 each of them, hobbled Decedent even though they found him

1 disoriented and lying on his back in the parking lot of Valley 2 Presbyterian Hospital;

- 3 d. By failing to exercise reasonable care in the placement of Decedent 4 under arrest by assaulting and battering Decedent, and placing 5 hobbling/hog-tie restraints on Decedent, despite the absence of any 6 need for same;
- 7 e. By failing to safeguard Decedent by exposing Decedent to an 8 unreasonable risk of harm or death in failing to adequately assess and 9 determine the true situation and Decedent's mental and physical health;
- 10 f. By failing to act carefully, prudently and safely in regard to Decedent, 11 without use of force, fear, intimidation and/or retaliation;
- 12 g. By failing to use only that amount of force which was reasonably 13 necessary to detain, handcuff and/or arrest the Decedent, without 14 causing the assault, battery and wrongful death of Decedent.
15 Specifically, Defendants, and each of them, assaulted, battered, 16 forcefully and violently detained Decedent, then hobbled Decedent, an 17 unarmed man, posing no threat to the officers or anyone else;
- 18 h. By failing to prepare investigative reports designed to vindicate the use 19 of negligent or excessive force, regardless of whether such use was 20 justified;
- 21 i. By failing to prepare investigative reports which uncritically rely solely 22 on the work of officers involved in the incidents, of negligent or 23 excessive use of force and which systematically fail to credit testimony 24 by non-law enforcement witnesses;
- 25 j. By failing to prepare investigative reports which include non-law 26 enforcement witness statements, even when those witness statement 27 contradict CITY, LAPD and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive;

28 ///

- k. By failing to prepare investigative reports which contain all factual information and items of physical evidence which contradict the accounts of CITY and LAPD officers, employees and/or agent;
- l. By failing to obtain all evidence when conducting an investigation, including obtaining witness statements, in order to obtain answers that may exonerate the accused;
- m. By failing to adequately assess and obtain civilian complaints and to research all such complaints to the fullest extent of the law, even when such complaints relate to complaints of excessive use of force and deputy misconduct by CITY, LAPD and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive;
- n. By failing to issue public statements exonerating accused who are involved in altercations with police officers, including incidents of alleged negligent or excessive use of force, where the accused has been deemed to be “not guilty” and/or not at fault;
- o. The failure of CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, to objectively review investigative reports for accuracy and truthfulness, and to not accept conclusions which are unwarranted by the physical evidence of the incident, or the testimony of non-law enforcement witnesses, and which contradict the officer version;
- p. By failing to enact and implement policies, practices and procedures as well as training, relating to incidents of negligent or excessive use of force and other misconduct, such as the filing of false reports to justify the use of force;
- q. By failing to establish an independent and autonomous investigative unit within CITY and LAPD and to assign such a unit to investigate those incidents where the initial witness statements contradict CITY and LAPD personnel and/or where the officers involved in the incident may have committed a crime or violated CITY and LAPD regulations;

- 1 r. By failing to maintain a centralized department-wide system for
- 2 tracking and monitoring of incidents of negligent or excessive force,
- 3 abuse of authority, falsification of reports, obstruction of justice and
- 4 other misconduct; so as to identify those officers who engage in such
- 5 misconduct;
- 6 s. By failing to establish a system for further review and further
- 7 investigation of all incidents, and investigative reports, where officers
- 8 and their supervisors allege that a civilian has allegedly resisted arrest
- 9 or attacked an officer and other witnesses provide contradictory or
- 10 exculpatory evidence against CITY and/or LAPD personnel;
- 11 t. By failing to establish a system for further review and further
- 12 investigation of all incidents and reports where witnesses have alleged
- 13 that CITY and/or LAPD officers have engaged in excessive force,
- 14 abuse of authority, falsification of investigative reports, fabrication of
- 15 probable cause, perjury, racial profiling or other misconduct;
- 16 u. By failing to objectively review and analyze all reports or complaints
- 17 where a civilian has alleged excessive use of force and police officers
- 18 have filed investigative reports alleging that the civilian has resisted
- 19 arrest or battered an officer;
- 20 v. By failing to investigate all stages of a civil or administrative
- 21 proceeding, in case of negligent or excessive use of force, falsification
- 22 of evidence, the filing of false investigative reports and other acts of
- 23 misconduct;
- 24 w. By destroying physical evidence, including, audiotapes, videotapes,
- 25 documents, photographs or other exculpatory evidence; and
- 26 x. By filing false charges of resisting arrest, battery on a peace officer, or
- 27 assault with a deadly weapon against a peace officer, against those
- 28 civilians who have been the victims of excessive force, unjustified

1 shootings or false arrest.

2 y. By failing to wait for rescue and/or trained medical personnel to assess 3 and treat Decedent prior to placing him in hobbling restraints, acting in 4 reckless and wanton disregard for the rights and safety of Decedent;

5 z. By failing to adequately train, adequately assess and adequately 6 supervise GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 7 SCHNEIDER and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, such that on the date of the 8 incident, and prior thereto, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI,
9 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10,
10 inclusive, would not use inadequate tactics and unlawful measures in a 11 wrongful attempt to detain and arrest Decedent; i.e., they failed to 12 ensure that GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,
13 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, were trained to adequately
14 assess the situation that ensued with Decedent, to determine probable 15 cause and when such can be used to effectuate an arrest, to detain and 16 arrest Decedent with the use of unlawful force and o ensure that 17 Decedent's rights, guaranteed to him by the Fourth and Fourteenth
18 Amendments, were preserved;

19 aa. By failing to conduct adequate background checks prior to hiring any 20 employees and to hire only those employees who survived rigorous 21 background checks into such employee's fitness to become a police 22 officer;

23 ab. By failing to appropriately train each individual to become a highly 24 specialized officer in all areas of the law, including, but not limited to, 25 personal freedoms, constitutional protections, arrest, detention and use 26 of deadly force; and 27 ///

28 ///

ac. By failing to adequately supervise their officers and employees to ensure that such officers and employees are appropriately trained in all areas of the law, including, but not limited to, personal freedoms, constitutional protections, arrest, detention and use of deadly force and to ensure that such officers and employees utilize all appropriate mechanisms while in the field, while effectuating arrest, while conducting searches and seizures and while employing deadly force.

45. Defendants, and each of them, proximately caused the death of Decedent by the wrongful and negligent acts described herein above.

46. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, entered into a special relationship with Decedent when they undertook to question and detain him, and thereafter, when they undertook to place Decedent under arrest, and place hobble/hog-tie restraints on Decedent, despite the absence of any need for same, knowing that they had duties to follow, which they breached as set forth above.

47. As a proximate result of the death of the Decedent and the above described conduct of Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiffs have sustained substantial economic and non-economic damages resulting from the death of Decedent, including but not limited to financial loss and the loss of the love, comfort, society, attention, services and support of Decedent in an amount according to proof at trial.

48. As a further proximate result of the above-described conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, and the ensuing death of the Decedent, Plaintiffs have incurred funeral and burial expenses in an amount according to proof at trial.

49. As a further proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention, carelessness, imprudence and recklessness of the Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiffs sustained, and in the future will sustain loss of income due to the death of Decedent, all to Plaintiffs' damage in an amount which is presently unascertained. Plaintiffs will seek leave of Court to amend this Complaint to allege same once it has been ascertained.

50. As a further proximate result of the above-described wanton and reckless conduct of Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiffs are entitled to seek exemplary and punitive damages against Defendants, and each of them, to deter and punish such future conduct.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

For Deprivation of Civil Rights Pursuant to Civil Code §43

(By Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, as Successor-in-Interest to Decedent

Against All Defendants)

51. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, repeats, re-alleges and incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of this complaint as if set forth in full.

52. California Civil Code §43 states: "Besides the personal rights mentioned or recognized in the Government Code, every person has, subject to the qualifications and restrictions provided by law, the right of protection from bodily restraint or harm, from personal insult, from defamation, and from injury to his personal relations."

53. At all times herein mentioned herein, there existed between Decedent and Defendants, and each of them, a professional, service or business relationship which was facilitated, encouraged and promoted by virtue of Defendants, and each of their positions, as peace officers, police officers, detectives, supervisors, superiors, employers, employees and agents of CITY and/or LAPD.

54. Decedent had the right of protection from bodily restraint or harm, from personal insult, from use of unnecessary and exclusively dangerous restraints, from use of deadly force, and from injury to his personal relations with Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, by the Defendants, and each of them.

55. Decedent had the personal right to be free from intimidation, coercion, duress, intimidation, assault, battery, violent arrest, forceful detention, handcuffing, hobbling and wrongful death at the hands of Defendants, and each of them.

56. Decedent was an unarmed man.

1 57. Decedent had an expectation of personal rights, freedom, freedom of 2 association and freedom of speech, along with an enjoyment of rights secured to him by the 3 Constitution, the laws of the United States and the laws of the State of California. Decedent's
4 rights were interfered with by Defendants, and each of them, when they breached their duties 5 as stated herein above.

6 58. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention, 7 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness of the Defendants, and each of them, while 8 Decedent was under the care, custody and control of Defendants, and each of them, Decedent 9 was injured in health, strength and activity, suffering from nervous shock, mental anguish, 10 emotional distress and injury to his nervous system and person, all of which injuries caused 11 Decedent great mental suffering and will continue to cause Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, great 12 mental and physical suffering, resulting in general damages in an amount to be ascertained 13 according to proof.

14 59. As a further and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention, 15 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of the Defendants, and each of them, 16 during the time Decedent was under the care, custody and control of Defendants, and each of 17 them, Decedent incurred, medical and other expenses, the exact amount of which are not 18 known at this time. Further, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, will likely incur future medical and 19 other expenses, the exact amount of which are not known at this time. Plaintiff, V.
20 BROOKMAN, will ask leave of Court to amend this Complaint to allege the same when it is 21 ascertained, or to prove same at time of trial.

22 60. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described acts and/or omissions, 23 lack of attention, carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of Defendants, and 24 each of them, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, sustained, and in the future will sustain loss of 25 income due to the death of Decedent, all to Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN's, damage in an 26 amount which is presently unascertained. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, will ask leave of Court 27 to amend this Complaint to allege same once it has been ascertained, or prove same at time of 28 trial.

61. As a further proximate result of the above-described wanton and reckless conduct of Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, is entitled to seek exemplary and punitive damages against Defendants, and each of them, to deter and punish such future conduct.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

For Deprivation of Civil Rights Pursuant to Civil Code §52.1

(By Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, as Successor-in-Interest to Decedent

Against All Defendants)

62. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, repeats, re-alleges and incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of this complaint as if set forth in full.

63. California Civil Code §52.1 states, in pertinent part: “(b) Any individual whose exercise or enjoyment of rights secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or of rights secured by the Constitution or laws of this state, has been interfered with, or attempted to be interfered with, as described in subdivision (a), may institute and prosecute in his or her own name and on his or her own behalf a civil action for damages, including, but not limited to, damages under Section 52, injunctive relief, and other appropriate equitable relief to protect the peaceable exercise or enjoyment of the right or rights secured. (c) An action brought pursuant to subdivision...(b) may be filed either in the superior court for the county in which the conduct complained of occurred or in the superior court for the county in which a person whose conduct complained of resides or has his or her place of business...”

64. At all times herein mentioned herein, there existed between Decedent and Defendants, and each of them, a professional, service or business relationship which was facilitated, encouraged and promoted by virtue of Defendants, and each of their positions, as peace officers, police officers, detectives, supervisors, superiors, employers, employees and agents of CITY and/or LAPD.

65. Decedent had the right of protection from bodily restraint or harm, from personal insult, from use of restraints, from use of deadly force, and from injury to his personal relations with Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, by the Defendants, and each of them.

1 66. Decedent had the personal right to be free from worry of intimidation, 2 coercion, duress, intimidation, assault, battery, violent arrest, forceful detention, handcuffing, 3 hobbling and wrongful death at the hands of Defendant, and each of them.

4 67. Decedent had an expectation of personal rights, freedom, freedom of 5 association and freedom of speech, along with an enjoyment of rights secured to him by the 6 Constitution, the laws of the United States and the laws of the State of California. Decedent's
7 rights were interfered with by Defendants, and each of them, when they breached their duties 8 as stated herein above.

9 68. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention, 10 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness of the Defendants, and each of them, while 11 Decedent was under the care, custody and control of Defendants, and each of them, Decedent 12 was injured in his health, strength and activity, suffering from nervous shock, mental anguish, 13 emotional distress and injury to his nervous system and person, all of which injuries have 14 caused Decedent great mental and physical suffering and will continue to cause Plaintiff, V.
15 BROOKMAN, great mental and physical suffering, all to their general damages in an amount 16 to be ascertained according to proof.

17 69. As a further and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention, 18 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of the Defendants, and each of them, 19 during the time Decedent was under the care, custody and control of Defendants, and each of 20 them, Decedent incurred medical and other expenses, the exact amount of which are not 21 known at this time. Further, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, will likely incur future medical and 22 other expenses, the exact amount of which are not known at this time. Plaintiff, V.
23 BROOKMAN, will ask leave of Court to amend this Complaint to allege the same when it is 24 ascertained, or to prove same at time of trial.

25 70. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described acts and/or omissions, 26 lack of attention, carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of Defendants, and 27 each of them, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, sustained, and in the future will sustain loss of 28 income due to the death of Decedent, all to Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN's, damage in an

1 amount which is presently unascertained. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN will ask leave of Court 2 to amend this Complaint to allege same once it has been ascertained, or prove same at time of 3 trial.

4 71. As a further and proximate result of the above-described conduct of the 5 Defendants, and each of them, and the ensuing death of Decedent, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, 6 individually and as Successor-in-Interest to Decedent, has incurred and will incur attorney's 7 fees. Pursuant to California Civil Code §52.1(h): "In addition to any damages, injunction, or 8 other equitable relief awarded in an action brought pursuant to subdivision (b), the court may 9 award the petitioner or Plaintiffs reasonable attorney's fees."

10 72. As a further proximate result of the above-described wanton and reckless 11 conduct of Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, is entitled to seek 12 exemplary and punitive damages against Defendants, and each of them, to deter and punish 13 such future conduct.

14 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 For Violation of Civil Rights Pursuant to 42 U.S.C.A. §1983;

16 (By Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, as Successor-in-Interest to Decedent Against 17 Defendants, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, 18 and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive)

19 73. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, repeats, re-alleges and incorporates by reference 20 the preceding paragraphs of this complaint as if set forth in full.

21 74. On the date of the incident, prior to and at the time of the incident, Decedent 22 was unarmed.

23 75. Though it was reported that Decedent was "disturbed," it is unknown what that 24 activity was and/or if it was even true.

25 76. There is no indication that Decedent was violent; there is no indication that 26 Decedent threatened GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 27 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive; there is no indication that Decedent was verbally 28 or physically abusive to GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,

1 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive; there is no indication that Decedent pretended to 2 have a weapon or that Decedent threatened bodily harm to GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 3 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive; and there is no
4 evidence that the force used by GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 5 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, was necessary, lawful and prudent under the 6 circumstances. Therefore, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 7 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, lacked the probable cause necessary to arrest, 8 detain, assault, batter and hobble Decedent.

9 77. The force used by GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 10 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, was with wanton and reckless disregard to the 11 rights and safety of Decedent and the force used by GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 12 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, evidenced such 13 wantonness and recklessness with respect to the unjustified infliction of damages to Decedent 14 and as such is tantamount to a knowing willingness that such damages; i.e., wrongful death, 15 would occur. The force used by GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 16 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, was excessive and unreasonable in light of the 17 circumstances described herein, and as such it was used in violation of Decedent's Fourth and 18 Fourteenth Amendment rights.

19 78. GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, 20 and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, had no knowledge at the moment of the attempted arrest, and 21 prior thereto, based on the totality of circumstances as stated above, to believe and/or 22 conclude that Decedent had committed or was about to commit an offense. A warrantless 23 arrest must be based on probable cause and without same, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 24 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, had no right to 25 violate Decedent's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.

26 79. Decedent was subjected to a deprivation of rights, privileges and immunities 27 guaranteed by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, in 28 that GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1

1 to 10, inclusive, (a) wrongfully detained Decedent without probable cause; (b) used 2 unreasonable deadly force upon Decedent by assaulting, battering and ultimately hobbling 3 Decedent; (c) seized Decedent's person by use of force, fear, intimidation and/or coercion; 4 and (d) failed to wait for the arrival of rescue personnel, such that Decedent was placed in the 5 police vehicle, hobbled/hog-tied, and allowed to die.

6 80. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C.A. §1983, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, 7 SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, under color of law, while employed 8 by CITY and/or LAPD, and while acting under color of law at the time of the incident, 9 subjected Decedent, a citizen of the United States, to the deprivation of his rights, privileges 10 and immunities secured by the United States Constitution, the California Constitution and 11 laws, and as such, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, 12 and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, are liable to Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, as Successor-in-13 Interest to Decedent.

14 81. As a citizen of the United States, Decedent under the Fourth and Fourteenth 15 Amendment, was entitled to be free from such unlawful conduct by GUITIERREZ, 16 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive. The 17 right to be free from excessive force is a clearly established right under the Fourth 18 Amendment's prohibition against unreasonable seizures of the person. The right to be free 19 from excessive force during an arrest is the right to due process which is a clearly established 20 right under the Fourteenth Amendment.

21 82. The acts of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 22 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, clearly shock the conscience and involve a 23 substantial violation of Decedent's substantive due process in that GUITIERREZ, 24 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, by 25 the following: (a) applying unnecessary and unreasonable force against Decedent's person, 26 without probable cause; (b) failing to show a relationship between the force used; i.e., 27 assault, battery, hobbling and the conduct of the Decedent which required such force; (c) 28 wrongfully causing the death of the Decedent; and (d) failing to show that the force used was

1 applied in a good faith effort to maintain or restore discipline, and instead using such force 2 maliciously and sadistically for the purpose of inflicting harm upon Decedent.

3 83. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention,
4 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL,
5 SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, while Decedent was under the care,
6 custody and control of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 7 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, Decedent was injured in health, strength and 8 activity, suffering from nervous shock, mental anguish, emotional distress and injury to his 9 nervous system and person, all of which injuries have caused Decedent great mental and 10 physical suffering and will continue to cause V. BROOKMAN, great mental, physical 11 suffering, all to Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN's, general damages in an amount to be ascertained 12 according to proof.

13 84. As a further and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention,
14 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI,
15 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, during the time
16 Decedent was under the care, custody and control of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 17 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, Plaintiff, V.
18 BROOKMAN, and Decedent incurred, medical and other expenses, the exact amount of 19 which are not known at this time.

21 GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 22 10, inclusive, and the ensuing death of Decedent, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, has incurred 23 and will incur attorney's fees, the exact amount of which is not known at this time.
24 Accordingly, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, requests attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C.A.
25 §1988.

26 86. As a further proximate result of the above-described wanton and reckless 27 conduct of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and 28 DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, is entitled to seek exemplary and

1 punitive damages against GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,
2 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, to deter and punish such future conduct.

3 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (By Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, as Successor-in-Interest to Decedent Against 6 Defendants, CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive)

7 87. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, repeats, re-alleges and incorporates by reference 8 the preceding paragraphs of this complaint as if set forth in full.

9 88. CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, were the supervisors, employers, 10 trainers, officials and policy makers prior to and at the time of the incident, and were the 11 direct supervisors, employers, trainers, officials and policy makers in charge of 12 GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 13 10, prior to and at the time of the incident. As such, they had control over GUITIERREZ, 14 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, and 15 all actions taken by GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 16 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive.

17 89. CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, had final decision making 18 authority and policy making authority in regard to the training, hiring, tactics and policies 19 used and/or effectuated by CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive. CITY, LAPD and 20 DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, made, effectuated and enforced the policies and procedures of its 21 officers and employees, and such policies and procedures were utilized by GUITIERREZ, 22 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, 23 prior to and at the time of the incident.

24 90. Specifically, CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, failed to adequately 25 train, adequately assess and adequately supervise GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 26 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, such that on the date 27 of the incident, and prior thereto, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 28 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, used inadequate tactics and unlawful measures in

1 a wrongful attempt to detain and arrest Decedent. Specifically, GUITIERREZ, 2 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, 3 were not trained to adequately assess the situation that ensued with Decedent, they were not 4 adequately trained to determine probable cause and when such can be used to effectuate an 5 arrest, they were not trained to detain and arrest Decedent with the use of unlawful force and 6 they were not trained to ensure that Decedent's rights, guaranteed to him by the Fourth and 7 Fourteenth Amendments, were preserved.

8 91. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 9 CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, had a pattern of allowing their officers and 10 employees, to work, under color of law, without being adequately and appropriately trained, 11 and that such policy was common and well known that it constituted a custom that 12 represented such official policy.

13 92. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 14 CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, acted with a deliberate indifference to 15 Decedent's rights by failing to discipline GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, 16 SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, after the incident, and that prior to 17 the date of the incident, CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, knew or had to reason to 18 know that GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and 19 DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, were not properly trained and that by such improper training, CITY, 20 LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, knew or had reason to know that obvious consequences 21 of constitutional violations would occur.

23 CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, are direct participants in the unconstitutional
24 conduct of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and 25 DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, have ratified the unlawful conduct of GUITIERREZ, 26 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive.

27 94. The inactions of CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, in regard to the 28 unlawful and unconstitutional conduct of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL,

1 SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, shows a deliberate indifference for 2 the rights of Decedent, and shows acquiescence of the unlawful and unconstitutional conduct 3 of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 4 10, inclusive, such that CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, are liable for the 5 wrongful death of Decedent.

6 95. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention, 7 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness of CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, 8 while Decedent was under the care, custody and control of CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, 9 inclusive, Decedent was injured in health, strength and activity, suffering from nervous shock, 10 mental anguish, emotional distress and injury to his nervous system and person, all of which 11 injuries have caused Decedent great physical and mental suffering, and will continue to cause 12 Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, great mental and physical suffering, all to Plaintiff, V.
13 BROOKMAN's, general damages in an amount to be ascertained according to proof.

14 96. As a further and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention, 15 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of CITY, LAPD and DOES 11 to 50, 16 inclusive, during the time Decedent was under the care, custody and control of CITY, LAPD 17 and DOES 11 to 50, inclusive, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, and Decedent incurred, medical 18 and other expenses, the exact amount of which are not known at this time.

20 GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 21 10, inclusive, and the ensuing death of Decedent, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, has incurred 22 and will incur attorney's fees, the exact amount of which is not known at this time.
23 Accordingly, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, requests attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C.A.
24 §1988.

25 98. As a further proximate result of the above-described wanton and reckless 26 conduct of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and 27 DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, is entitled to seek exemplary and 28 punitive damages against GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,

SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, to deter and punish such future conduct.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

For Negligent Hiring, Training and Supervision

(By Plaintiffs Against Defendants, DOES 11 to 30, inclusive)

99. Plaintiffs repeat, re-allege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 to 39, inclusive, of this complaint as if set forth in full.

100. GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, were hired, trained and supervised by DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, to perform their duties on behalf of CITY and LAPD prior to and at the time of the incident.

101. DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, failed to adequately train, adequately assess and adequately supervise GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, such that on the date of the incident, and prior thereto, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, used inadequate tactics and unlawful measures in a wrongful attempt to detain and arrest Decedent. Specifically, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, were not trained to adequately assess the situation that ensued with Decedent, they were not adequately trained to determine probable cause and when probable cause can be used to effectuate an arrest, they were not trained to detain and arrest Decedent with the use of unlawful force and they were not trained to ensure that Decedent's rights, guaranteed to him by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments, were preserved.

102. DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, had the authority to hire, train and supervise, and otherwise implement policies and procedures for the hiring, training and supervising of its officers, including, but not limited to, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive. As such, DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, had the following duties, in addition to those set forth hereinabove:

- a. To conduct adequate background checks prior to hiring any employees and to hire only those employees who survived rigorous background checks into such employee's fitness to become a police officer;
- b. To appropriately train each individual to become a highly specialized officer in all areas of the law, including, but not limited to, personal freedoms, constitutional protections, arrest, detention and use of deadly force; and
- c. To adequately supervise their officers and employees to ensure that such officers and employees are appropriately trained in all areas of the law, including, but not limited to, personal freedoms, constitutional protections, arrest, detention and use of deadly force and to ensure that such officers and employees utilize all appropriate mechanisms while in the field, while effectuating arrest, while conducting searches and seizures and while employing deadly force.

103. DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, in addition to the breaches of duties identified hereinabove, breached the above stated duties as follows:

- a. By failing to conduct adequate background checks prior to hiring any employees and to hire only those employees who survived rigorous background checks into such employee's fitness to become a police officer;
- b. By failing to appropriately train each individual to become a highly specialized officer in all areas of the law, including, but not limited to, personal freedoms, constitutional protections, arrest, detention and use of deadly force; and
- c. By failing to adequately supervise their officers and employees to ensure that such officers and employees are appropriately trained in all areas of the law, including, but not limited to, personal freedoms, constitutional protections, arrest, detention and use of deadly force and

1 to ensure that such officers and employees utilize all appropriate 2 mechanisms while in the field, while effectuating arrest, while 3 conducting searches and seizures and while employing deadly force.

4 104. DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, proximately caused the death of Decedent by the 5 wrongful and negligent acts described herein above.

6 105. At all times herein mentioned, DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, entered into a special 7 relationship with Decedent when the officers and employees under their supervision and 8 control; i.e., GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and 9 DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, undertook and placed Decedent in custody knowing he was 10 disoriented, confused, promising assistance, and voluntarily assuming a protective duty for 11 the safety of Decedent.

12 106. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention, 13 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness of DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, while Decedent was 14 under the care, custody and control of DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, Plaintiffs and Decedent were 15 injured in health, strength and activity, suffering from nervous shock, mental anguish, 16 emotional distress and injury to their nervous system and person, all of which injuries have 17 caused Plaintiffs and Decedent and continue to cause Plaintiffs' great mental and physical 18 suffering, all to Plaintiffs' general damages in an amount to be ascertained according to proof.

19 107. As a further and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention, 20 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, during 21 the time Decedent was under the care, custody and control of DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, 22 Plaintiffs and Decedent incurred, medical and other expenses, the exact amount of which are 23 not known at this time. Further, Plaintiffs will likely incur future medical and other expenses, 24 the exact amount of which are not known at this time. Plaintiffs will ask leave of Court to 25 amend this Complaint to allege the same when it is ascertained, or to prove same at time of 26 trial.

27 108. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described acts and/or omissions, 28 lack of attention, carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of DOES 11 to 30,

1 inclusive, Plaintiffs sustained, and in the future will sustain loss of income due to the death of 2 Decedent, all to Plaintiffs' damage in an amount which is presently unascertained. Plaintiffs 3 will ask leave of Court to amend this Complaint to allege same once it has been ascertained, 4 or prove same at time of trial.

5 109. As a further proximate result of the above-described wanton and reckless 6 conduct of as described hereinabove, Plaintiffs are entitled to seek exemplary and punitive 7 damages against DOES 11 to 30, inclusive, to deter and punish such future conduct.

8 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 For Assault

 11 GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER,
 12 and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive)

13 110. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, repeats, re-alleges and incorporates by reference 14 paragraphs 1 to 39, inclusive, of this complaint as if set forth in full.

15 111. In doing the wrongful acts described herein above, GUITIERREZ,
 16 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, 17 placed Decedent in apprehension of harmful contact as follows:

- 18 a. When GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 19 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, approached Decedent, 20 Decedent was fearful of being touched, grabbed, handcuffed, held 21 against his will, arrested, detained, and/or hobbled;
- 22 b. GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,
 23 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, continually violated
 24 Decedent's personal space by standing in close proximity to him, 25 attempting to detain him, attempting to arrest him, attempting to 26 handcuff him, and attempting to and succeeding in placement of hobble 27 restraints on him; and 28 ///

1 c. Decedent at all relevant times herein was in fear of being touched by 2 GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,
3 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive.

4 112. In doing such actions, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, 5 SALDANA, SCHNEIDER and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, intended to cause or to place 6 Decedent in apprehension of a harmful contact with GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 7 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive.

8 113. Prior to the harmful and offensive touching of Decedent by GUITIERREZ, 9 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, 10 Decedent was placed in imminent apprehension of said touching.

11 114. The actions by GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 12 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, were unlawful, unnecessary, unreasonable and 13 excessive in light of all of the facts stated herein, including but not limited to: (a) no
14 description of the alleged “disturbing” activity has been provided; (b) Decedent was lawfully
15 at/on the subject premises prior to and at the time of the incident; (c) Decedent was unarmed
16 prior to and at the time of the incident; (d) Decedent posed no threat to GUITIERREZ,
17 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive; (e) 18 Decedent was hobbled despite the lack of any cause to do so; and (f) Decedent was placed in 19 the police vehicle, hobbled/hog-tied, and left to die.

20 115. In doing such actions described herein above, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 21 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, caused Decedent to 22 be in apprehension of imminent and harmful contact with Decedent’s person, against 23 Decedent’s express wishes and without Decedent’s consent.

24 116. As a result of the acts as alleged above, Decedent was, in fact, placed in great 25 apprehension of a harmful contact with his person.

26 117. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention,
27 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL,
28 SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, while Decedent was under the care,

1 custody and control of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,
 2 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, Decedent was injured in health, strength and 3 activity, suffering from nervous shock, mental anguish, emotional distress and injury to his 4 nervous system and person, all of which injuries have caused Decedent great mental and 5 physical suffering and will continue to cause Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, great mental and 6 physical suffering, all to Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN's, general damages in an amount to be 7 ascertained according to proof.

8 118. As a further and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention,
 9 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI,
 10 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, during the time
 11 Decedent was under the care, custody and control of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 12 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, Plaintiff, V.
 13 BROOKMAN, and Decedent incurred, medical and other expenses, the exact amount of 14 which are not known at this time. Further, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, will likely incur future
 15 medical and other expenses, the exact amount of which are not known at this time. Plaintiff,
 16 V. BROOKMAN, will ask leave of Court to amend this Complaint to allege the same when it 17 is ascertained, or to prove same at time of trial.

18 119. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described acts and/or omissions,
 19 lack of attention, carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of GUITIERREZ,
 20 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, 21 Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, sustained, and in the future will sustain loss of income due to the 22 death of Decedent, all to Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN's, damage in an amount which is 23 presently unascertained. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, will ask leave of Court to amend this 24 Complaint to allege same once it has been ascertained, or prove same at time of trial.

25 120. As a further proximate result of the above-described wanton and reckless 26 conduct of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and 27 DOES 1 to 20, inclusive, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, is entitled to seek exemplary and 28 punitive damages against GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,

SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 20, inclusive, to deter and punish such future conduct.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

For Battery

(By Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, as Successor-in-Interest to Decedent Against GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER,
and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive)

121. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, repeats, re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 to 39, inclusive, of this complaint as if set forth in full.

122. In doing the wrongful acts described herein above, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, intended to and did cause a harmful and offensive touching of Decedent's person as follows:

- a. Touching Decedent's person without his permission, consent and knowledge;
- b. Grabbing and pulling on Decedent's person without his permission, consent and knowledge; and
- c. Hobbling Decedent's person.

123. In addition, as stated in the Autopsy Report, one of the immediate causes of death was Sequelae of Hypoxic Ischemic Encephalopathy (suffocation), caused by the unnecessary and unreasonable use of hobble restraints on Decedent.

124. The actions by GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, were unlawful, unnecessary, unreasonable and excessive in light of all of the facts stated herein, including but not limited to: (a) no description of the alleged "disturbing" activity has been provided; (b) Decedent was lawfully at/on the subject premises prior to and at the time of the incident; (c) Decedent was unarmed prior to and at the time of the incident; (d) Decedent posed no threat to GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive; (e) Decedent was hobbled despite the lack of any cause to do so; and (f) Decedent was placed in the police vehicle, hobbled/hog-tied, and left to die.

1 125. In doing such actions described herein above, GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI,
2 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, caused Decedent to 3 suffer offensive and harmful contact, against Decedent's express wishes and without 4 Decedent's consent.

5 126. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention,
6 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL,
7 SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, while Decedent was under the care,
8 custody and control of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 9 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, Decedent were injured in health, strength and 10 activity, suffering from nervous shock, mental anguish, emotional distress and injury to their 11 nervous system and person, all of which injuries have caused Decedent great physical and 12 mental suffering and will continue to cause Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, great mental and 13 physical suffering, all to Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN's, general damages in an amount to be 14 ascertained according to proof.

15 127. As a further and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention,
16 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI,
17 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, during the time
18 Decedent was under the care, custody and control of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 19 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, Plaintiff, V.
20 BROOKMAN, and Decedent incurred, medical and other expenses, the exact amount of 21 which are not known at this time. Further, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, will likely incur future
22 medical and other expenses, the exact amount of which are not known at this time. Plaintiff,
23 V. BROOKMAN, will ask leave of Court to amend this Complaint to allege the same when it 24 is ascertained, or to prove same at time of trial.

25 128. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described acts and/or omissions,
26 lack of attention, carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of GUITIERREZ,
27 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, 28 Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, sustained, and in the future will sustain loss of income due to the

1 death of Decedent, all to Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN's, damage in an amount which is
 2 presently unascertained. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, will ask leave of Court to amend this 3 Complaint to allege same once it has been ascertained, or prove same at time of trial.

4 129. As a further proximate result of the above-described wanton and reckless 5 conduct of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and 6 DOES 1 to 20, inclusive, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, is entitled to seek exemplary and 7 punitive damages against GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,
 8 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 20, inclusive, to deter and punish such future conduct.

9 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 Interference with Familial Relationship - 42 U.S.C.A. §1983 and Civil Code §43

11 (By Plaintiffs Against All Defendants)

12 130. Plaintiffs repeat, re-allege and incorporate by reference the preceding 13 paragraphs of this complaint as if set forth in full.

14 131. By doing the acts complained of herein, Defendants, and each of them, acted 15 with deliberate indifference to Plaintiffs' and Decedent's rights of familial relationship and 16 society. The actions by GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, 17 SCHNEIDER and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, were unlawful, unnecessary, unreasonable and 18 excessive in light of all of the facts stated herein, including but not limited to: (a) no
 19 description of the alleged "disturbing" activity has been provided; (b) Decedent was lawfully
 20 at/on the subject premises prior to and at the time of the incident; (c) Decedent was unarmed
 21 prior to and at the time of the incident; (d) Decedent posed no threat to GUITIERREZ,
 22 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive; (e)
 23 Decedent was hobbled despite the lack of any cause to do so; and (f) Decedent was placed in 24 the police vehicle, hobbled/hog-tied, and left to die.

25 132. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention,
 26 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL,
 27 SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, while Decedent was under the care,
 28 custody and control of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA,

1 SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, Plaintiffs and Decedent sustained a significant 2 interference with their familial relations with one another, in that such conduct by Defendants, 3 and each of them, resulted in Decedent's death. Such conduct caused Plaintiffs and Decedent 4 to be significantly injured in their health, strength and activity, suffering from nervous shock, 5 mental anguish, emotional distress and injury to their nervous system and person, all of which 6 injuries have caused Plaintiffs and Decedent and continue to cause Plaintiffs great mental and 7 physical suffering, all to Plaintiffs' general damages in an amount to be ascertained according 8 to proof.

9 133. As a further and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention,
10 carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI,
11 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, during the time
12 Decedent was under the care, custody and control of GUITIERREZ, GHASSERANI, 13 CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, Plaintiffs and 14 Decedent incurred, medical and other expenses, the exact amount of which are not known at 15 this time. Further, Plaintiffs will likely incur future medical and other expenses, the exact 16 amount of which are not known at this time. Plaintiffs will ask leave of Court to amend this 17 Complaint to allege the same when it is ascertained, or to prove same at time of trial.

18 134. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described acts and/or omissions,
19 lack of attention, carelessness, imprudence and recklessness on the part of GUITIERREZ,
20 GHASSERANI, CAMPBELL, SALDANA, SCHNEIDER, and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, 21 Plaintiffs sustained, and in the future will sustain loss of income due to the death of Decedent, 22 all to Plaintiffs' damage in an amount which is presently unascertained. Plaintiffs will ask 23 leave of Court to amend this Complaint to allege same once it has been ascertained, or prove 24 same at time of trial.

25 135. As a further and proximate result of the above-described conduct of 26 Defendants, and each of them, and the ensuing death of Decedent, Plaintiffs have incurred 27 and will incur attorney's fees, the exact amount of which is not known at this time.
28 Accordingly, Plaintiffs request attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C.A. §1988 and Civil Code §52.1.

136. As a further proximate result of the above-described wanton and reckless conduct of Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiff are entitled to seek exemplary and punitive damages against Defendants, and each of them, to deter and punish such future conduct.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Loss of Consortium

(By Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, Against All Defendants)

137. Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, repeats, re-alleges and incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of this complaint as if set forth in full.

138. At all times during their marriage, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, and Decedent enjoyed a healthy and loving relationship. As a result of the conduct of Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, has been deprived of the love, care, support, companionship, and sexual relationship provided by her spouse; i.e., Decedent, as a result of his death.

139. As a direct and proximate result of such conduct, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, has suffered a loss of consortium and continues to suffer such loss, all in an amount according to proof and in excess of the minimum jurisdictional requirements of this Court. If the Court requires, Plaintiff, V. BROOKMAN, shall seek leave of Court to amend this Complaint with the exact amount of her damages when the same has been ascertained.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray as follows:

ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. For general damages;
2. For special damages;
3. For costs of suit incurred herein;
4. For punitive and/or exemplary damages; and
5. For any other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Dear Counselor:

This letter is to inform you that the above-referenced claim which you filed with the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors was rejected on April 2, 2009.

An investigation of this matter fails to indicate any involvement on the part of the County of Los Angeles, its officers, agents or employees. Accordingly, your claim was rejected on that basis.

STATE LAW REQUIRES THAT YOU BE GIVEN THE FOLLOWING "WARNING":

Subject to certain exceptions, you have only (6) months from the date this notice was personally delivered or deposited in the mail to file a court action on this claim. See Government Code Section 945.6.

Jeffery A. Brightwell, Esq.
April 3, 2009

APPLICATION TO PRESENT LATE
CLAIM REGARDING DAMAGES

[GOV. CODE Section 911.4 Et Seq.]

21 Pursuant to the provisions of Sections 911.4 et seq. of the California Government 22 Code, an application is hereby made by Claimants for leave to present a late claim, 23 presented herewith.

24 I.

25 CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE INCIDENT

26 On or about October 27, 2008 at approximately 8:00 a.m. Los Angeles Police 27 Officers Joel Guitierrez and Alan Ghasserani responded to a radio call concerning a 28 disturbed male (Anthony Brookman, deceased) on the corner of Sepulveda Boulevard

1 and Basset Street. Anthony Brookman was discovered in the Presbyterian Hospital 2 parking lot disoriented and lying on his back. He stated he needed shelter from "the 3 earthquake". Anthony Brookman submitted to arrest without the need for force. The 4 officers handcuffed Mr. Brookman and requested a rescue ambulance. The officers 5 assisted Mr. Brookman to his feet and walked him to the police car.

6 A few moments later Sargent Kyle Campbell and Officers Jose Saldana and Daniel 7 Schneider arrived at the scene. For unknown reasons, Sargent Campbell determined the 8 use of a hobble restraint which was applied to Mr. Brookman's ankle's. Mr. Brookman 9 was seated in the patrol car and then stopped breathing. He was pronounced dead at 10 approximately 3:15 p.m.

11 The Los Angeles Police Department's use of hobbling restraints was not justified 12 in these circumstances and further, the use of such restraints can cause death to one 13 who is overweight as was Mr. Brookman. Mr. Brookman was 45 years old at the time of 14 his death.

15 His wife, Vanessa Brookman has sustained serious physical and emotional injuries 16 and lost the earning capacity of her husband.

17 On April 6, 2009 claim forms were mistakenly filed with the County of Los Angeles.
 18 On the Claim Form, it was clear that it was a claim against the City of Los Angeles and 19 Los Angeles Police Department. Three claim forms were filed. One on behalf of 20 Vanessa Brookman, one on behalf of Anthony Brookman's sister, Sherry Hernandez, and 21 on behalf of Anthony Brookman's mother, Diane Souqui. Attached hereto and made a 22 part hereof as Exhibit "A" are true and correct copies of the claim forms.

23 II.

24 THE BOARD MAY GRANT LEAVE TO PRESENT A LATE CLAIM AS THE 25 APPLICATION IS PRESENTED WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME

26 Government Code §911.4 allows for a late claim to be presented within a 27 reasonable time, not to exceed one year after the accrual of the cause of action. The 28 accrual of the cause of action in the subject incident was October 27, 2008, and the late

1 claim, therefore, is being presented within one year of the accrual of the cause of action, 2 and within a reasonable time.

5 THE APPLICATION SHOULD BE GRANTED BASED ON GOV. CODE §911.6(b)(1)
6 SINCE THE FAILURE TO TIMELY PRESENT THE CLAIM WAS THROUGH 7 MISTAKE, INADVERTENCE, AND EXCUSABLE NEGLECT

8 Government Code §911.6(b) provides that:

9 "The board shall grant the application where one or more of the following is 10 applicable:

11 (1) The failure to present the claim was through mistake, inadvertence, surprise 12 or excusable neglect and the public entity was not prejudiced in its defense of the
14 911.2..."

15 The use of the word "shall" indicates that the Board has no discretion, and must 16 grant the Application if the failure to timely present a claim was through mistake, 17 inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect and no prejudice was caused. The showing 18 required of a claimant seeking relief in filing a late claim on this grounds is the same as 19 that required by Code of Civil Procedure §473 for relieving a party from default judgment.
20 Viles v. State of California (1967) 66 Cal.2d 24, 29. Because the law favors the 21 adjudication of disputes on the merits, courts liberally construe the statute providing for 22 discretionary relief from a judgment entered as result of party's mistake, inadvertence,
23 surprise, or excusable neglect in favor of relief. Arambula v. Union Carbide Corp. (2005)
24 128 Cal.App.4th 333.

25 For the following reasons, in this case, the failure to timely present a claim was 26 through mistake, inadvertence and excusable neglect.

27 Applicant, Vanessa Brookman, properly filled out the Claim form alleging "Anthony 28 Brookman died in the custody with the Los Angeles Police Department", but filled the 1 wrong form (the City and County forms are similar in content), but it was clear from the 2 information provided it was a City claim. This form was inadvertently filed with the County 3 of Los Angeles, not the City of Los Angeles.

4 The first part of April, 2009, counsel herein, Jeffery A. Brightwell was preparing for 5 a criminal trial in San Diego County which actually began on April 22, 2009. That trial 6 lasted for approximately one week. In reviewing the file in preparation of filing the 7 Complaint herein, it was not discovered until August 26, 2009 that the County had been 8 served instead of the City.

 10 when relieving a party from the Gov. Code claim filing requirements. Viles v. California, 11 supra, 66 Cal.2d at p. 32; Nilson v. Los Angeles (1987) Cal.App.2d 976, 979; Ebersol v.
 12 Cowan (1983) 35 Cal.3d 427, 435; Moore v. Cal. Comm. College Dist. (1986) 157
 13 Cal.App.3d 715, 721; Bettencourt v. Los Rios Community College Dist. (1986) 42 Cal.3d
 14 270, 275. In Viles, supra, the Court noted the "well-recognized policy of the law to 15 liberally construe remedial statutes designed to protect persons within their purview, and 16 the modern trend of judicial decisions in favor of granting relief unless absolutely 17 forbidden by statute." Id., at p. 32.

18 'Excusable neglect' is generally defined as an error a reasonably prudent person 19 under the same or similar circumstances might have made. Ambrose v. Michelln North 20 America, Inc., supra, 134 Cal.App.4th 1350.

21 In this case, Applicant understood that the Claim for Damages must be filed within 22 180 days of the incident. It was just mistakenly filed with the County of Los Angeles 23 instead of the City of Los Angeles. Any reasonably prudent person could have easily 24 made the same mistake as Applicant did.

25 In Bettencourt, supra, 42 Cal.3d 270, the plaintiffs brought an action for the 26 wrongful death of their son on a city college field trip. Plaintiffs' counsel, believing that 27 the college's employees worked for the state, filed a claim with the state, and did not 28 discover his mistake until after the 100-day deadline of Gov. Code, §911.2 (now six

1 months.) The court found the neglect excusable, even though counsel's declaration did 2 not provide the reason why he mistook the identity of one public entity for another, nor 3 how he finally discovered the error, concluding that these omissions alone did not provide 4 a proper basis for denying relief. Id. at p. 280. The court noted that any doubts in 5 counsel's declaration had to be resolved in favor of granting relief. Id.

6 In Kaslavage v. West Kern County Water Dist. (1978), 84 Cal.App.3d, 527, the 7 attorney hired an investigator to obtain information about an accident that occurred when 8 plaintiff dove from a pipe into a canal. Apparently, both the investigator and the attorney 9 assumed that the water district that owned the canal also owned the pipe. Consequently, 10 counsel presented a timely claim to the district that owned the canal. He did not learn 11 that the pipe was owned by a different water district until after the 100-day period had 12 elapsed. A phone call to one of the owners of the land or the owner of the canal would 13 have revealed the true owner of the pipe. However, counsel neglected to make such a 14 call. Although the Court of Appeal characterized counsel's error as "grave," it found 15 excusable neglect and reversed the trial court's denial of relief. Id., at p. 529.

16 Bettencourt and Kaslavage involved the same excusable neglect involved in this 17 case, namely, filing a timely claim against the wrong entity. The grounds for granting the 18 Application are even more compelling in this case, in that the Los Angeles Police 19 Department (The City) were properly identified.

20 In Flores v. Board of Supervisors (1970) 13 Cal.App.3d 480, the attorney was 21 aware of §911.2's 100-day limit for filing a claim with a public entity. Nevertheless, he 22 did not file the claim until 123 days after the cause of action had accrued. His 23 explanation was simply that he had failed to open a file which would have reminded him 24 of the 100-day deadline. The Court of Appeal found that the trial court abused its 25 discretion in failing to excuse the attorney's neglect. The attorney's mistake in Flores 26 was more culpable than Applicant's mistake here. The attorney in Flores knew exactly 27 what he had to do to protect his client's interests and when he had to do it. Nevertheless, 28 he failed to act in a timely manner. Contrast this with Applicant's conduct in this case, 1 who moved promptly in seeking relief, albeit, from the wrong entity.

2 In determining whether an attorney's error constitutes excusable neglect, the 3 courts also consider the attorney's overall diligence or lack thereof in addition to 4 examining the attorney's error. Bettencourt, supra, 42 Cal.3d 270 at p. 278. Here, 5 although Applicant had made an erroneous assumption, which led him to sue the wrong 6 public entity, he was otherwise diligent.

7 The claim-filing requirement of the Government Claims Act serves several 8 purposes: (1) provide the public entity with sufficient information to allow it to make a 9 thorough investigation of the matter; (2) facilitate settlement of meritorious claims; (3) 10 enable the public entity to engage in fiscal planning; and (4) avoid similar liability in the 11 future. Westcon Const. Corp. v. County of Sacramento (2007) 152 Cal.App.4th 183. It 12 gives public entity prompt notice of a claim so it can investigate strengths and 13 weaknesses of claim while evidence is still fresh and witnesses are available, it affords 14 opportunity for amicable adjustment, and it informs public entity of potential liability so it 15 can better prepare for upcoming fiscal year. Renteria v. Juvenile Justice, Dept. of 16 Corrections and Rehabilitation (2006) 135 Cal.App.4th 903. The purpose of requiring the 17 filing of claims, and of prescribing time limit frames in which such claims may be filed, is 18 to give public entity the opportunity to investigate the facts while evidence is fresh and 19 witnesses are available, as well as to settle meritorious cases without the need of 20 litigation; furthermore, prompt presentation of claim for money permits recipient public
21 entity to make appropriate physical planning decision. Nelson v. Superior Court (2001)
22 89 Cal.App.4th 565, Christopher P. v. Mojave Unified School Dist. (1993) 19 Cal.App.4th
23 165, City of Ontario v. Superior Court (1993) 12 Cal.App.4th 894.

24 In this case, since the late claim is being presented within a reasonable time, not 25 exceeding one (1) year, all of the above mentioned purposes are met. Therefore, no real 26 prejudice will be caused to Respondents if the Application is granted. The prejudice to 27 Applicant, however, who sustained severe damage, will be substantial, as she will not be 28 able to find redress for her severe damages.

CONCLUSION

RE: Claim No.: C10-0884
Application For: Vanessa Brookman

Dear Mr. Brightwell:

Please be advised that after careful review and evaluation of your Application for Leave to Present a Late Claim, the Application has been denied.

"If you wish to file a state court action on this matter, you must first petition the appropriate court for an order relieving you from the provisions of Government Code Section 945.4 (Claims presentation requirement). See Government Code Section 946.6. Such petition must be filed with the court within six (6) months from the date your application for leave to present a late claim was denied.

"You may seek the advice of an attorney of your choice in connection with this matter. If you desire to consult an attorney, you should do so immediately."

Very truly yours,

THOMAS WONG

CASE NO.: LS019236

PETITION FOR ORDER PERMITTING LATE CLAIM AGAINST GOVERNMENT ENTITY

[GOV. CODE §911.4 ET SEQ.]

DATE: December 2, 2009
TIME: 8:30 a.m.
DEPT: D

Judge:

20
21 Pursuant to the provisions of Sections 911.4 et seq. of the California Government 22 Code, an application is hereby made by Petitioner for leave to present a late claim, 23 presented herewith.

25 CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE INCIDENT

26 On or about October 27, 2008, Petitioners' husband, brother, son (Anthony 27 Brookman) was near the corner of Sepulveda Boulevard and Bassett in the City of Van 28 Nuys, California. Decedent was disoriented and laying on his back requesting he needed

1 shelter from "the earthquake". Respondents arrested him. While he was in custody he 2 was hobbled, even though he was arrested without the need for force. The officers 3 placed him in a sitting position and it is believed he suffocated as a result of that position.

4 The force used by the Respondent was unnecessary and they knew or should have 5 known that hobbling an overweight suspect can cause him to suffocate. It is believed this 6 is against Los Angeles Police Department policy.

7 Petitioners allege that the Respondents negligently and carelessly employed, 8 trained, retained, supervised, assigned, controlled and negligently and carelessly failed 9 to adequately or properly supervise these officers and permitted the hobbling of the 10 decedent which caused his death. The Respondents should have properly cared for 11 decedent while he was in their custody and was unjustified in their actions and brutality 12 towards decedent and should not have hobbled him which resulted in his death.

13 Further the Respondents negligently created and placed Decedent, who was in 14 their custody, in an unreasonable and unjustified manner and means of controlling 15 decedent further improperly and without authorization used hobble restraints, all of which 16 resulted in the death of decedent. The Respondents who took control over the incident 17 with decedent, the Respondents, and each of them, were persons obligated to serve and 18 protect members of the public from harm, including those persons taken into custody by 19 the City of Los Angeles and the Los Angeles Police Department had a duty to protect 20 Decedent from harm and to not place decedent in a more dangerous position than he 21 would have been otherwise. The Respondents, and each of them, failed to exercise 22 reasonable care, breached their duty to decedent and Respondent, thereby causing the 23 injuries alleged herein to Petitioner and causing the death of decedent while in the Los 24 Angeles Police Department's custody.

25 It is further alleged that the Respondents entered into a special relationship with 26 Decedent when they undertook and placed him in custody knowing he was disoriented, 27 confused, promising assistance, voluntarily assuming a protective duty for the safety of 28 decedent. As a result of the orders and/or conduct of the police officers, as well as their

1 promised assistance, decedent relied to his detriment that the police officers were 2 safeguarding him. As a result of the negligent action of the police officers in not properly 3 assessing decedent's condition, exposed him to an unreasonable risk of harm, resulting 4 in his death while in the custody of the Los Angeles Police Department.

5 It was reasonably foreseeable that this type of injury, damages and death would 6 be sustained by decedent and Petitioner as a result of the consequence of the above 7 described acts and omissions.

8 As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, lack of attention, carelessness, 9 imprudence and recklessness of the Respondents while decedent was in the care and 10 custody of the Los Angeles Police Department, Petitioner and decedent were injured in 11 health, strength and activity, suffering from nervous shock, mental anguish, emotional 12 distress and injury to their nervous system and person, all of which injuries have caused 13 and continue to cause Respondent great mental, physical suffering, all to Respondent's 14 general damages in an amount to be ascertained according to proof.

15 As a direct and legal result of the action of Respondents, and each of them, as set 16 forth herein, Petitioner sustained severe physical and emotional injuries, incurred medical 17 expense and loss of earnings.

18 II.

19 THE FACTS UNDERLYING THE LATE FILING

20 Petitioners timely filed their claims naming the Los Angeles Police Department and 21 each of the police officers correctly on April 6, 2009 but inadvertently used the County 22 form and filed with the County address instead of the City's address. When the 23 Petitioners were preparing the Complaint in this matter, they realized the error, 24 immediately filed correctly with the City and filed an Application to Present a Late Claim 25 with the City which was subsequently rejected. The relief requested is the mistake 26 Petitioners made in filing at the wrong address using the County form which contained 27 identically the same information as does the City form.

28 // // //

2 THE BOARD MAY GRANT LEAVE TO PRESENT A LATE CLAIM AS THE 3 APPLICATION IS PRESENTED WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME

4 Government Code §911.4 allows for a late claim to be presented within a
 5 reasonable time, not to exceed one year after the accrual of the cause of action. The 6 accrual of the cause of action in the subject incident was October 27, 2008, and the late 7 claim, therefore, is being presented within one year of the accrual of the cause of action,
 8 and within a reasonable time. Petitioners herein filed Application to Present Late Claim 9 with the City on September 1, 2009 which was subsequently rejected on September 11, 10 2009.

 13 SINCE THE FAILURE TO TIMELY PRESENT THE CLAIM WAS THROUGH 14 MISTAKE, INADVERTENCE, AND EXCUSABLE NEGLECT

15 Government Code §911.6(b) provides that:

16 "The board shall grant the application where one or more of the following is 17 applicable:

18 (1) The failure to present the claim was through mistake, inadvertence, surprise or 19 excusable neglect and the public entity was not prejudiced in its defense of the
 21 911.2..."

22 The use of the word "shall" indicates that the Board has no discretion, and must 23 grant the Application if the failure to timely present a claim was through mistake, 24 inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect and no prejudice was caused. The showing 25 required of a claimant seeking relief in filing a late claim on this grounds is the same as 26 that required by Code of Civil Procedure §473 for relieving a party from default judgment.
 27 Viles v. State of California (1967) 66 Cal.2d 24, 29. Because the law favors the 28

1 adjudication of disputes on the merits, courts liberally construe the statute providing for 2 discretionary relief from a judgment entered as result of party's mistake, inadvertence,
 3 surprise, or excusable neglect in favor of relief. Arambula v. Union Carbide Corp. (2005)
 4 128 Cal.App.4th 333.

5 For the following reasons, in this case, the failure to timely present a claim was 6 through mistake, inadvertence and excusable neglect.

7 Petitioners timely filed the claim against the Los Angeles Police Department on 8 April 6, 2009. However, it was mistakenly filed with the County of Los Angeles, not the 9 City of Los Angeles. The form used, taken off the internet, was a County form. However, 10 the information presented on the form correctly identified the Los Angeles Police 11 Department and each of the Los Angeles Police Officers involved. (Exhibit "A") 12 When the Complaint in this matter was being prepared, it was realized that the 13 claims had been filed with the County instead of the City Clerk and immediately 14 Petitioners re-filed the claims with the City and also filed an Application to Present Late 15 Claim regarding damages also with the City. That occurred on or about September 1, 16 2009. The Claims are attached to the Declaration as Exhibit "B" and the Application to 17 Present Late Claim is attached as Exhibit "C". Exhibit "E" is a true and correct copy of the 18 denial by the Office of the City Attorney of the Application for Leave to present a late 19 claim.

20 The same policy of liberal relief from default pursuant to C.C.P. §473 is followed
 21 when relieving a party from the Gov. Code claim filing requirements. Viles v. California, 22 supra, 66 Cal.2d at p. 32; Nilson v. Los Angeles (1987) Cal.App.2d 976, 979; Ebersol v.
 23 Cowan (1983) 35 Cal.3d 427, 435; Moore v. Cal. Comm. College Dist. (1986) 157
 24 Cal.App.3d 715, 721; Bettencourt v. Los Rios Community College Dist. (1986) 42 Cal.3d
 25 270, 275. In Viles, supra, the Court noted the "well-recognized policy of the law to 26 liberally construe remedial statutes designed to protect persons within their purview, and 27 the modern trend of judicial decisions in favor of granting relief unless absolutely forbidden 28 by statute." Id., at p. 32.

1 'Excusable neglect' is generally defined as an error a reasonably prudent person
 2 under the same or similar circumstances might have made. Ambrose v. Michelin North 3 America, Inc., supra, 134 Cal.App.4th 1350.

4 In this case, Petitioners timely filed a claim naming the Los Angeles Police 5 Department but mistakenly filed this form with the County instead of the City. Any 6 reasonably prudent person could easily have made this same mistake as Petitioners did.

7 In Bettencourt, supra, 42 Cal.3d 270, the plaintiffs brought an action for the 8 wrongful death of their son on a city college field trip. Plaintiffs' counsel, believing that the 9 college's employees worked for the state, filed a claim with the state, and did not discover 10 his mistake until after the 100-day deadline of Gov. Code, §911.2 (now six months.) The 11 court found the neglect excusable, even though counsel's declaration did not provide the 12 reason why he mistook the identity of one public entity for another, nor how he finally 13 discovered the error, concluding that these omissions alone did not provide a proper basis 14 for denying relief. Id. at p. 280. The court noted that any doubts in counsel's declaration 15 had to be resolved in favor of granting relief. Id.

16 In Kaslavage v. West Kern County Water Dist. (1978), 84 Cal.App.3d, 527, the 17 attorney hired an investigator to obtain information about an accident that occurred when 18 plaintiff dove from a pipe into a canal. Apparently, both the investigator and the attorney 19 assumed that the water district that owned the canal also owned the pipe. Consequently, 20 counsel presented a timely claim to the district that owned the canal. He did not learn that 21 the pipe was owned by a different water district until after the 100-day period had elapsed.
 22 A phone call to one of the owners of the land or the owner of the canal would have 23 revealed the true owner of the pipe. However, counsel neglected to make such a call.
 24 Although the Court of Appeal characterized counsel's error as "grave," it found excusable 25 neglect and reversed the trial court's denial of relief. Id., at p. 529.

26 Bettencourt and Kaslavage involved the same excusable neglect involved in this 27 case, namely, filing a timely claim against the wrong entity. The grounds for granting the 28 Application are even more compelling in this case, since the Los Angeles Police

1 Department was correctly named. It was timely filed, just at the wrong address.

2 In Flores v. Board of Supervisors (1970) 13 Cal.App.3d 480, the attorney was 3 aware of §911.2's 100-day limit for filing a claim with a public entity. Nevertheless, he did 4 not file the claim until 123 days after the cause of action had accrued. His explanation 5 was simply that he had failed to open a file which would have reminded him of the 100-6 day deadline. The Court of Appeal found that the trial court abused its discretion in failing 7 to excuse the attorney's neglect. The attorney's mistake in Flores was more culpable 8 than Respondent's mistake here. The attorney in Flores knew exactly what he had to do 9 to protect his client's interests and when he had to do it. Nevertheless, he failed to act in 10 a timely manner. Contrast this with Respondent's conduct in this case, who moved 11 promptly in seeking relief, from filing the document at the wrong location.

12 In determining whether an attorney's error constitutes excusable neglect, the courts 13 also consider the attorney's overall diligence or lack thereof in addition to examining the 14 attorney's error. Bettencourt, supra, 42 Cal.3d 270 at p. 278. Here, although Petitioners 15 had made a mistake on the address of the filing that they properly filed against the Los 16 Angeles Police Department, but in using the wrong form, filed in the wrong location with 17 the County instead of the City. (Both forms require almost identical information).

18 The claim-filing requirement of the Government Claims Act serves several 19 purposes: (1) provide the public entity with sufficient information to allow it to make a 20 thorough investigation of the matter; (2) facilitate settlement of meritorious claims; (3) 21 enable the public entity to engage in fiscal planning; and (4) avoid similar liability in the 22 future. Westcon Const. Corp. v. County of Sacramento (2007) 152 Cal.App.4th 183. It 23 gives public entity prompt notice of a claim so it can investigate strengths and 24 weaknesses of claim while evidence is still fresh and witnesses are available, it affords 25 opportunity for amicable adjustment, and it informs public entity of potential liability so it
 26 can better prepare for upcoming fiscal year. Renteria v. Juvenile Justice, Dept. of 27 Corrections and Rehabilitation (2006) 135 Cal.App.4th 903. The purpose of requiring the 28 filing of claims, and of prescribing time limit frames in which such claims may be filed, is

1 to give public entity the opportunity to investigate the facts while evidence is fresh and 2 witnesses are available, as well as to settle meritorious cases without the need of 3 litigation; furthermore, prompt presentation of claim for money permits recipient public
 4 entity to make appropriate physical planning decision. Nelson v. Superior Court (2001)
 5 89 Cal.App.4th 565, Christopher P. v. Mojave Unified School Dist. (1993) 19 Cal.App.4th
 6 165, City of Ontario v. Superior Court (1993) 12 Cal.App.4th 894.

7 In this case, since the late claim is being presented within a reasonable time, not 8 exceeding one (1) year, all of the above mentioned purposes are met. Therefore, no real 9 prejudice will be caused to Respondents if the Application is granted. The prejudice to 10 Petitioners, however, who sustained severe injuries, will be substantial, as they will not 11 be able to find redress for the death of their spouse, brother and/or son.

12 V.

13 ANY DOUBTS REGARDING THE FILING OF A PETITION

14 ARE TO BE RESOLVED IN FAVOR OF THE PETITIONER

15 In the case of Ovando v. County of Los Angeles (2008) 159 Cal.App.4th 42, the 16 Appellate Court held in favor of granting petitioner's filing of a petition for an order 17 permitting late claim: "Section 946.6 is a remedial statute intended 'to provide relief from 18 technical rules that otherwise provide a trap for the unwary claimant'. As such, it is 19 construed in favor of relief whenever possible. The policy favoring trial on the merits is 20 the primary policy underlying 946.6. In order to implement this policy, any doubt should 21 be resolved in favor of granting relief. Consequently, where uncontradicted evidence or 22 affidavits of the petitioner establish adequate cause for relief, denial of relief constitutes 23 an abuse of discretion. In light of the policy considerations underlying section 946.6, a 24 Trial Court decision denying relief will be scrutinized more carefully in an order granting 25 relief. Bettencourt (supra).
